

The Search for Life

E. C. Davis

November 4, 1923

Concord, NH

"If ye being finite/evil know how to give good gifts, how much more shall the heavenly father give the holy spirit (life) to them that ask him."¹

- I. If we should be placed in a strange environment, what would we do? Launching on a canoe trip after dark.
 - a. Without pressing the matter too far, such an illustration suggest our life in the world.
 - b. Especially in these last few years when so many changes are taking place

- II. What we seek to know is the attitude of the Universe, of God, towards us.
 - a. 1-Bad? 2-Indifferent? 3-Good?
 - b. Religion is this impulse to know and do the will of God

- III. If ye, being finite, know how etc.
 - a. Thus Jesus. The central point of his life faith.
 - b. Thus the Universe.
 - c. Truth =
Beauty = {Literature, Music, Culture}
Goodness
Evil + Sorrows.
 - d. God forever {???

¹ Quote seems to be a version of Matthew, 7, 11: "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?"