

Grounds for Faith in Religious Liberty

E. C. Davis

No Date

Two aspects.

A. Internal. The experience of the girl called Ivanhoe.
Heroism.

B. Objective. External conditions that foster the spirit of Liberty.

Are there limitations?

Coleridge. "He, who begins by loving Christianity better than Truth, will proceed by loving his sect or the Church better than Christianity, and end by loving himself better than all."

This is a general moral law. Apply in nationalism? In industrialism?

It marks out the road to disintegration and conflict.

The other road is the road to freedom and peace. First personal. A personal achievement.

Second a social state. Conditions of which are removal of all artificial barriers.