

The Fact of God in Human Experience

E. C. Davis

Lancaster, PA¹

No Date

Scripture: Soul of Bible, Page 251 + 498-9' I Peter 2

Text: "But in this man will I dwell, even in him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and that honoreth my word."

Outline: As main lines of 19th century became clear we see the development of the strain of scientific spirit and investigation. He sat humbly at nature's feet, and learned. Simple. Loyal to Truth. Christian in spirit but not in name.

On the other hand, the commercial development, political + social has retained the name "Christian" but violated its ethics, resulting in the collapse of civilization in the world war.

All human experience, both personal and social bears witness to "a standard in reality." To the demands of that standard men and races must conform.

God is. =

Man shares in the creative responsibility and development

¹ There is no date in the text of this sermon. But the reference to "the collapse of civilization in the world war," and the similar quality of paper and handwriting suggest that this sermon dates from Earl Davis' time at the Church of Our Father in Lancaster, PA.