

Life Has Meaning

E. C. Davis

October 28, 1923

Concord, NH

To this end have I been born and to this end am I come into the world that I should been [sic] witness to the truth.

- I. 3 Primitive interests
 - a. Bread, clothing and shelter
 - b. Social relations. Politics
 - c. Meaning of Life. Religion
- II. Life has meaning
 - a. But what is its meaning?
 - b. We won't give a final answer
 - c. But we find ourselves today with hundreds of thousands of years of evolution behind us.
 - d. We are saturated with is [sic] spiritual essence.
- III. Like boys in the relay race taking the flag, the symbol of continuity, we pick up some thread of human progress and carry on.
 - a. Why?
 - b. I cannot tell. But somehow I feel it must be. It is God's spirit, the urge of life within.
 - c. Jesus and the Rich Young Way.
 - d. What shall I do to give life meaning? To make it worthwhile?

Heart and Voice: A Collection of Songs and Services for Sunday School and Home. Geo. H. Ellis, 1909, Hymn #56. Our Father's Faith, John W. {???