Dear Sir:

In reply to your favor of recent date, will say that I can be with you on the date mentioned, Wednesday, March 9, 1921.

I was, indeed, delighted to hear from you and glad to know that you had not forgotten me.

While I have made a note of the date, March 9, 1921, may I suggest that you write me again as a reminder sometime before the meeting, say about next February.

With kindest regards, I am

Fraternally yours,

James H. Maurer

Dear Dr. Davis:

In reply to your favor of the 19th inst., will say that you can depend upon me not disappointing you on Wednesday, March 9th.

Will arrange to meet you, at least, several hours before we meet the others and will write you, later, on just what train I will come.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

James H. Maurer

Dear Dr. Davis:

In reply to your favor of the 6th inst., will say that the best I can do is leave Harrisburg at 5:30 p. m., and arrive in Lancaster at 6:18. If my work should so shape itself as to permit me to leave here at 3:40, which train arrives in Lancaster at 4:36 p. m., I will go to your home, 538 West Chestnut street, but, if I don't report there by at least 5:00 p. m., then you had better arrange to meet me at the station at 6:18. I must leave Lancaster again, the same night, at 9:50, for Akron, Ohio.

With kindest regards, I am

Cordially yours,

James H. Maurer
