

THE OPEN WAY

I))

I-- Relation to sermon and ideas of last Sunday.

Through man to God-- The religious and spiritual basis and sanction of moral conduct.

II-- The interpretation of the unseen world in terms of the seen--

The unseen world of law and order as indicated by nature--

The unseen world of thought and creative activity as indicated by the intellectual activities --

The unseen world of moral purpose as evidenced by the moral purpose of man.

III--The moral and the sacramental relationship to the unseen

The priest and the prophet

The letter and the spirit

The body and the soul

IV-- The mystic sense of the relationship to the unseen

The scientist in thought and truth--

The artist in beauty

The moralist in goodness

V)) The right of insistence-- by the authority of the understanding heart--the moral purpose--and the creative will--

Man must and shall see these the truth and the truth shall make him free.